family we hardly knew and just watched the news all day everyday, not knowing if our family, friends or home were there. We all cryed and I dont think I slept the first 5 days after the storm. our cell phones were out and had no contact w/ anyone for days. finally we found our parents in Atlanta, GA and went for them.

My brother & I came back to see our home about 7 days after Katrina. 1st we searched for missing friends, then our home which had 5 feet of water, missing roof and all cars left behind gone. The 3 inches of mud filled our house, our belongings and all pictures of our loves.

My parents sister & nieces stayed in atlanta and recently moved in a new home w/ little to put in the home. My brother and I - live in our front yard determined to rebuild our home and get our family back HOME!! Thanks, Jenaile.
